Books for Children

By Gail DeLong

Well, Easter has come and gone and Thanksgiving is still months away but the church library has acquired new books relevant to each for children. Both books were written by Steve Deace, author, commentator, and dad.

The first book is "Why Easter? Jesus Died for Us So We Can Live Forever". You can help your children learn the origins of Easter and why it is "much more than egg hunts, candy, and the arrival of springtime". This book will help young ones realize that God gave us so much more when He gave us His son who died for us but rose again. God's gift changed the whole world.

The second book is "Why Thanksgiving? The Pilgrims Started Thanksgiving for the Same Reason They Came to America - Because They Loved God". Thanksgiving is a uniquely American holiday - but why did it start and who started it? The book is colorful and fun with attractive illustrations. But more importantly, it gives an accurate history of America's first Thanksgiving.
