Brief History of New Hope Baptist Church (1864-2025)

Organized as the New Hope Missionary Baptist Church of Christ in what was known as Greer's Neighborhood on the Old Stoker Place in August, 1864. Several of the Charter members were Elder A Fitzgerald, Elder William H. Dodson, Barbara Dodson, Mary Dodson, & Mary Parmer. First record of preaching on the Sabbath was Sept., 1864. In 1890, the church building was relocated approximately 2 1/2 miles NE of the present site and the name was changed to Stephen's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. In 1902, a one room building was erected 200 yards NW of the New Hope Cemetery. The name was changed back to New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in 1916. The church building was moved to the present location in 1917 and a new and larger building was completed in 1954. Since that time, a new sanctuary, a new fellowship hall, and a pavilion have been constructed. Plans are being made for renovation of the Children's Building in the near future. As we reflect on our rich history, we give thanks for the blessings God has bestowed upon our church and look forward to the work He has yet to accomplish through the New Hope family.
